

For Immediate Release: Feb. 2010

CONTACT: Kay Howard, (614) 888-7800

Schuler Named Senior Independence Executive Director

Cincinnati – Judy Schuler, RN, is the new executive director of Southwest Senior Independence. She began the position Feb. 8.

“Judy brings to the position a strong professional background as a seasoned health care executive,” said Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Senior Independence Nancy King. “Her diverse development and management experience in health care will be a great benefit to those we serve in southwest Ohio.”

Schuler has been a healthcare professional for nearly 20 years. Among her professional management positions, Schuler has served as the executive director of Employer Services/WorkHealth for OhioHealth in Columbus and as a director at Health Alliance in Cincinnati. Most recently, Schuler was the vice president of professional services home health at VNA Treasure Coast, Vero Beach, Fla.

Senior Independence provides care and service to more than 75,000 older adults in 42 Ohio counties, while also providing assistance and support to their caregivers. Through a variety of home and community based services, which include home health care, adult day services and hospice, Senior Independence helps people remain safe and independent in the place they call home. Additionally, through its iPartner affiliates and icaregiver.org Web site, Senior Independence extends services to older adults throughout the nation. Senior Independence is a division of Ohio Presbyterian Retirement Services, the largest and most experienced not-for-profit provider of continuing care retirement communities and services in Ohio.

For more information about Senior Independence, please log on to www.SeniorIndependence.org.

###